

Vjeroučitelj, teolog i voditelj međunarodne molitvene inicijative za prekid pobačaja „40 dana za život“ u Hrvatskoj. Ante ima brata Mislava i sestru Miriam. Čaljkušići su uvijek bili najživahnija djeca u susjedstvu, i u obrazovnim ustanovama koje su polazili.

Bavi se i pisanjem i režiranjem radeći s prijateljem Ivanom Lovrićem dokumentarne priloge vezane uz zalaganje laika u životu hrvatskoga društva, a snimio je i dokumentarni film o udruzi Betlehem pod nazivom „Zagrli život“. Također je producent dokumentarnog filma „40 dana...“. Predsjednik je i udruge „Hrvatska za Život“, koja organizira godišnje Međunarodne konferencije za Život. Ante se obiteljski skrasio sa suprugom Sarom s kojom ima troje djece, od toga jedno na nebu.

A religion teacher, a theologian and head of the international prayer initiative for the end of abortion "40 Days for Life" in Croatia. Ante has a brother Mislav and a sister Miriam. The Čaljkušić children have always been the liveliest children in the neighbourhood, as well as in the educational institutions that they attended.

He is also engaged into writing and directing, working with his friend Ivan Lovrić on documentary reports about the inclusion of lay people in the life of Croatian society and on a documentary film about the Association "Betlehem" called Embrace Life. He is also a producer of the documentary called 40 days... In addition, he is president of the Association "Croatia for Life" which organises annual international pro-life conferences. Ante has settled down with his wife Sara with whom he has three children, among which one in Heaven.