Udruga "Teen STAR"

Centar za prirodno planiranje obitelji

Kristina Pavlović djev. Ilčić rođena je 1996. i odrasla u obitelji sa šestero djece u Varaždinu, gdje je završila gimnaziju i srednju glazbenu školu. Diplomirala je na Prirodoslovno-matematičkom fakultetu u Zagrebu. Nakon 15-godišnjeg iskustva profesorice fizike u gimnaziji, posvećuje se odgojnom i društvenom djelovanju na području odgoja mladih, prirodnog planiranja obitelji te zaštite braka i obitelji u društvu.

Od 1995. godine vodi udruhu za cjeloviti spolni odgoj mladih "Teen STAR", organizira edukacije voditelja i provođenje programa s mladima diljem Hrvatske. Od 2009. je u vodstvu Centra za prirodno planiranje obitelji iz Zagreba (ovlaštene stručne organizacije pridružene Svjetskoj organizaciji za Billingsovu ovulacijsku metodu WOOMB), koji osposobljava podučavatelje metode u Hrvatskoj i provodi edukacije i poduku o plodnosti i prirodnom planiranju obitelji. Također, od 2006. godine vodi udruhu "Glas roditelja za djecu" – GROZD koja okuplja više od 45.000 podupiratelja i koja se zalaže za kvalitetan odgoj i obrazovanje djece i mladih, za poboljšanje položaja obitelji u društvu i prava roditelja, te za afirmaciju obiteljskih i kršćanskih vrijednosti. Od 2017. godine voditeljica je građanske inicijative protiv uvođenja Istanbulske konvencije i rodne ideologije u hrvatsko obrazovanje, zakonodavstvo i medije.

Udana je za supruga Božidara i majka je četvorice sinova.

Association "Teen STAR", Croatia

Natural Family Planning Centre in Zagreb

Kristina Pavlović (ex. Ilčić) was born in 1996 and grew up in a family with six children in Varaždin, where she finished high school and music school. She graduated from the Faculty of Science at the University of Zagreb. After 15 years of experience as a high-school physics professor, she dedicated herself to the educational and social work in the field of children and youth education, natural family planning, and protection of marriage and family in society.

Since 1995 she has led the Association "Teen STAR", which focuses on the implementation of the international sex education programme "Teen STAR" based on scientific facts and general human and Christian values in Croatia, and has organised teacher training courses and workshops for young people. Since 2009 she has led the Natural Family Planning Centre in Zagreb, an authorised expert organisation which is part of the World Organisation of the Ovulation Method Billings (WOOMB), involved in education of certified teachers and promoters of the Billings ovulation method, in teaching women as well as engaged and married couples about their fertility, and promoting knowledge and values of the Natural Family Planning in Croatian society. Since 2006 Kristina has led a civil family association called "Parents' voice for children" (GROZD), which gathers more than 45.000 supporters in Croatia and which is an advocate of quality education of children and youth, improvement of position of the family in society, and affirmation of family and Christian values. Since 2017 Kristina has led the civil initiative against the implementation of the Istanbul Convention and gender ideology in the Croatian school system, legislation and the media.

She is married to her husband Božidar and is a mother of four sons.
